

Jim Thompson & Siam Square Stroll

- 13.00 Bus Pick up at ICON SIAM (Please be ready 10 minutes before pick up time).
- 13.45 Arrive at Jim Thompson House, built in 1958, Jim Thompson's traditional Thai house consists of six teakwood structures surrounded by lush gardens. Passionate about Thai architecture, Jim collected and reassembled abandoned houses from across Thailand with the help of skilled Ayutthaya craftsmen. Today, his home stands as a historic landmark, known not only as the residence of the “Silk King” before his mysterious disappearance, but also as a museum showcasing rare Asian art and antiques previously unknown to the world.
- Then free time for shopping at Siam Square A buzzing hub of youth culture, fashion, and creativity. From trendsetting boutiques and local designer labels to street food gems and Instagrammable alleys, ultimate blend of street & chic or visiting the Bangkok Art and Culture Centre - Bangkok’s leading hub for contemporary art, design, and culture.
- 17.00 Bus pick up and head back to ICON SIAM.
- 17.30 ICON SIAM drop off.

